1 INTRODUCTION

Nu-World Industries (Pty) Limited (the “Company”) conducts business through importing, assembling, marketing and distribution of branded consumer goods.

This Promotion of Access to Information Manual (“Manual”) provides an outline of the type of records and the personal information a company holds, and explains how to submit requests for access to these records in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (“PAIA Act”). In addition, it explains how to access, or object to, personal information held by the Company, or request correction of the personal information, in terms of paragraphs 23 and 24 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (“POPI Act”).

The PAIA and POPI Acts give effect to everyone’s constitutional right of access to information held by private sector or public bodies, if the record or personal information is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. If a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest. This document explains how the will process personal information (PI). Requests shall be made in accordance with the prescribed procedures, at the rates provided. The forms and tariff are dealt with in section 5.

We will only disclose personal information to government authorities if we are required to do so by law. Our employees, our agents and our suppliers, are required to adhere to data privacy and confidentiality principles and to attend data privacy training.

4.4 Information security measures to protect personal information

Reasonable technical and organisational measures have been implemented for the protection of PI processed by the Company and its operators. In terms of the PoPIA, operators are third parties that process personal information on behalf of the Company.

We continuously implement and monitor technical and organisational security measures to protect the PI we hold, against unauthorised access, as well as accidental or willful manipulation, loss or destruction.

We will take steps to ensure that operators (suppliers and third parties) that process personal information on behalf of the Company apply adequate safeguards as outlined above.

4.5 Trans-border flows of personal information

We will only transfer PI across South African borders if the relevant business transactions or situation requires trans-border processing, and will do so only in accordance with South African legislative requirements; or if the data subject consents to transfer of their personal information to third parties in foreign countries.

We will take steps to ensure that operators are bound by laws, binding corporate rules or binding agreements that provide an adequate level of protection and uphold principles for reasonable and lawful processing of personal information, in terms of the PoPIA.

We will take steps to ensure that operators that process PI in jurisdictions outside of South Africa, apply adequate safeguards as outlined in Section 4.4.

4.6 Personal information received from third parties

When the receives PI from a third party on behalf of a data subject, we require confirmation that they have written consent from the data subject and has a lawful justification in terms of section 11 of POPIA, to share such information with the group.
